

observational skills

Year: 7 - Autumn 1 & 2

Subject: Art

Topic: Food Art

Line of inquiry: Using Sarah Graham & Joel Penkman as inspiration, can you find your own artistic style?

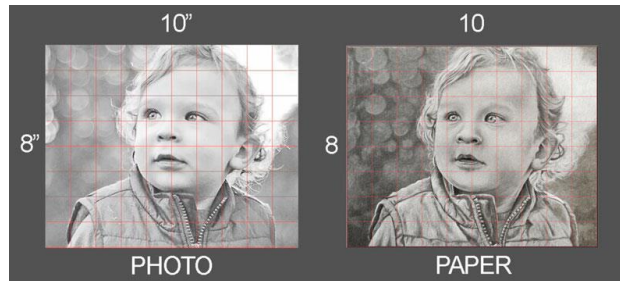

Artists use layers of shading to achieve light tones, mid-tones and dark tones. You can also achieve light tones with a light pressure on the paper, so you can achieve a darker tone with a heavier

"Sarah's artwork is an inspiration...
 ...Much like her. It's vibrant and accessible, which is a huge part of its appeal. Sarah's art inspires people to have a go themselves. My children enjoy her work and were inspired to visit her studio. They see the fun and energy in it, whilst we can appreciate the incredible innate ability that Sarah possesses and dedication it takes to create such beautiful, detailed paintings."
 — PADDY CONSIDINE, ACTOR & DIRECTOR

grid work

alternative materials

proportion

Some artists will take a photograph of their subject or composition and draw from an image, especially if they are drawing food products or people.

TINT adding white

SHADE adding black

Primary Secondary Tertiary

